HEADS NEEDED

THE Commonwealth union over the past few years has suffered many setbacks. In the main they have been weathered over the conference table by good sense and judgment.

This week the Commonwealth Premiers meet to discuss a range of problems which would appear to be a United Nations agenda.

The prospects of a British-American-Russian pact to end the nuclear tests and attempts to promote East-West talks to stop the arms race will occupy a certain amount of the Premiers'

There are many other issues, not the least of which will be the all-important subject of South Africa's position.

TAR Macmillan, the British Prime Minister, will have South Africa. He will have a band of accusers convinced that his white supre- drik Verwoord, the South Afrimacy policies sully the club. Some of Dr Verwoord's fellow members, among them the African and Asian rulers who outnumber the whites by 550 million to 90 million want Dr Verwoerd to modify the rock-like rules of the South African apartheid

Inevitably it seems that the spotlight will be focused on the South African controversy with its overtones of a black-white conflict and its symbolism of a continent which is already erupting. If Dr Verweord ignores the demands of the antiapartheid members as It appears at this moment, they will withhold their consent for South Africa's continued membership.

The Hongkong share market shot up to a new record again today, only two days after it had established an all-time record.

At today's half-day session, the volume of business reached about $9.7 million. This figure is $200,000 higher than Monday morning's $9.5

The previous highest for a Wednesday was $7

There was a general rise in prices in almost all shares on the stock market.

One broker said that several factors were responsible for the boom, one of which was the upvaluation of the German mark.

The upward trend continued at a pace which frequently coused congestion on the board. Lands passed the $90 mark, Providents and Gas added more than $1 to the previous day's best. All the Rubber and Textile groups showed improvement while the low priced shares, Realties and Gilmans shared the best proportional advance of the whole market.

London, Mar. 7. Suddenly, it seems, the English Royal Family has produced a personality of a kind that many critics thought extinct in such stately circles: a man who is a social reformer, an authority on the arts and is not afraid even to take a keen, knowledgeable glance at political matters.

He is the Earl of Harewood, 37-year-old son of the Princess Royal and a cousin of the Queen.

Director Evan Yang settled back to tell the story of his transformation from u journalist to a movie-maker. He was a reporter on the Ta Kung Pao (Hongkong, 1941), war correspondent and editor for the Sao Tang Pao (Chunking, 1942-1944), editor of the Peace Daily News (Shanghai, 1945-48), and an organiser and fentures editor of the Hongkong Times (Hongkong, 1949-52). However, while on the staff of the Peace Daily News in Shanghai, he started to freelance, writing scenarios for the Central Motion Picture Company. He managed to write three films in three years.

During the four years with the Hongkong Times, he wrote four more scripts for various studios in Hongkong. This included the "Socialite," which he directed for the Freedom Film Co.

This film attracted the attention of Asia Pictures Ltd. which persuaded him to quit journalism altogether in 1953 and engaged him as a full-time writerdirector. In a little over a year, he did six scripts and directed two films for them. In 1954-55, Mr Yang wrote

COWDREY SPEED-UP TEST

Warning: Don't expect village green hitting

by FRANK ROSTRON

England cricket captains Peter May and Colin Cowdrey, backed by chairman of selectors Gubby Allen, are determined to make this year's Test series against Australia the most memorable entertainment English fans have had for a long time.

May and Cowdrey told me of their keenness to duplicate the thrills of the Australia-West Indies series that has just ended, while they discussed their hopes and fears for next summer.
